EXPERIENCE

Peppermint Vitality has a cool, refreshing flavor that can help support digestive function and reduce feelings of discomfort after large meals.*

PRODUCT BACKGROUND

It takes more than 1 pound of the flowering tops and leaves of the peppermint plant to create a bottle of Young Living's Peppermint Vitality essential oil. Using steam distillation, we extract the purest, most potent Peppermint oil for people to use in teas, baked goods, or in veggie capsules to support their health.

Peppermint is a key ingredient in some of Young Living's most beloved blends, including DiGize™ Vitality™. Historically, peppermint was native to Europe, but the United States is now responsible for 75 percent of the world's peppermint production, including the peppermint grown at Young Living's Whispering Spring's Farm in Mona, Utah.
